Welcome to our Divine Service!

We are pleased that you are with us.

+Worship Notes+

The entire service, including the rubrics of when to sit and when to kneel or stand, and what to say, is printed out in this folder so you may follow along.

Welcome to weekly Divine Service at The Good Shepherd Lutheran Church! We are a congregation that confesses the Holy Bible as inerrant, that justification is by faith according to the Holy Bible and confessed in the 1580 Book of Concord. God bless you.

To all of you who are visiting our service this morning, we extend a most cordial welcome in Jesus' name. Please introduce yourself to our pastor. It is our hope that you will feel at home in our midst and will be blessed by our message of Christ crucified and risen for the sins of the world. If you are looking for a church home and would like to know about our membership, pastor would love to speak with you!

A Note From The Organist:

Karl Osterland is Music Director at Historic Trinity Lutheran Church in Detroit.

“Christians to the Paschal Victim” is a Gregorian Chant. The text is attributed to Wipo of Burgundy, who died c. 1050. It can be found at LFB 460, where it is paired with “Christ is Risen” (LSB 459). Only the text is found in the pew edition. The accompaniment edition gives the music complete. The organ setting here is very misterioso, perhaps in quiet anticipation of Easter morning. It uses tone colors that would be typical of those on the C. M. Skinner organ at Trinity, which dates from the 1930s.

Buxtehude's Praeludium is one of his most popular works. It actually consists of a Prelude, Fugue, and Chaconne. It begins with a dramatic pedal solo, then a Fantasia-like prelude. The fugue is very energetic, with some challenging pedal passages. A Chaconne is a piece based on a repeated bass pattern, and Buxtehude provides an insistent pedal to underscore this section. The piece conveys a celebratory mood throughout.

Epistle

1 Corinthians 15:51–57

⁵¹Behold! I tell you a mystery. We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, ⁵²in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised imperishable, and we shall be changed. ⁵³For this perishable body must put on the imperishable, and this mortal body must put on immortality. ⁵⁴When the perishable puts on the imperishable, and the mortal puts on immortality, then shall come to pass the saying that is written:

“Death is swallowed up in victory.”

⁵⁵“O death, where is your victory?

O death, where is your sting?”

⁵⁶The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. ⁵⁷But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Holy Gospel

Mark 16:1-8

P The Holy Gospel according to St. Mark, the sixteenth chapter.

Glo - ry be to Thee, O Lord.

The Resurrection

¹When the Sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of James and Salome bought spices, so that they might go and anoint him. ²And very early on the first day of the week, when the sun had risen, they went to the tomb. ³And they were saying to one another, "Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance of the tomb?" ⁴And looking up, they saw that the stone had been rolled back—it was very large. ⁵And entering the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, dressed in a white robe, and they were alarmed. ⁶And he said to them, "Do not be alarmed. You seek Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He has risen; he is not here. See the place where they laid him. ⁷But go, tell his disciples and Peter that he is going before you to Galilee. There you will see him, just as he told you." ⁸And they went out and fled from the tomb, for trembling and astonishment had seized them, and they said nothing to anyone, for they were afraid.

P This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise be to Thee, O Christ.

Nicene Creed

☐ I believe in one God,
the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth
and of all things visible and invisible.

And in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the only-begotten Son of God,
begotten of His Father before all worlds,
God of God, Light of Light,
very God of very God,
begotten, not made,
being of one substance with the Father,
by whom all things were made;
who for us men and for our salvation came down from heaven and was incarnate by the Holy Spirit of the virgin Mary and was made man;
and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate.
He suffered and was buried.
And the third day He rose again according to the Scriptures and ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of the Father.
And He will come again with glory to judge both the living and the dead,
whose kingdom will have no end.

And I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord and giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son together is worshiped and glorified, who spoke by the prophets.
And I believe in one holy Christian and apostolic Church,
I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins,
and I look for the resurrection of the dead
and the life ✝ of the world to come. Amen.

Prayer of the Church

The proper response is "Lord, have mercy."

- P In peace, let us pray to the Lord:
- C Lord, have mercy.

- P For minds fixed always on the Word of Christ, that we would rejoice today in His resurrection and continue forever in the one true faith, let us pray to the Lord:
- P For greater faith than the women on the first Easter morning, that certain of His resurrection, we may believe the Word of Christ, seeking His body in the blessed Sacrament and proclaiming His truthfulness without hesitation, let us pray to the Lord:
- P For faith, hope and love, that the fruits of repentance and our Lenten disciplines would continue until their completion in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ, let us pray to the Lord:
- P For preservation from all threats to peace, that the Lord would prevent pride, willful might, the deceptions of self-sufficiency and the use of technology without conscience or purpose; and for our president and governor, for those elected or appointed to serve our government, and for all who judge or enforce the rule of law, let us pray to the Lord:

- P For especially Alice, Allison, Betty, Bev, Cynthia, Diane, Janelle, Johnathan, Lynette, Marion and her family, Owen, Ron, Timothy, and those we name in our hearts all who suffer in the body, that strengthened by Christ's resurrection, they may stand on His Word now until they stand anew with Job and all the resurrected saints, let us pray to the Lord:
- P For hearts and lives cleansed from the leaven of sin, that we may worthily receive Christ, our Passover Lamb, in this Holy Communion, let us pray to the Lord:
- P All praise to You, dear Father in heaven, for You have opened the way to eternal life by the resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ. We give You thanks for all those who have gone before us in the faith and now rest from their labors. Keep us in that same faith, and embolden us by Your resurrection to be fearless in the face of disease, chaos, loneliness and every sorrow of this world. Give us, with Job, the solemn expectation to cheer us: our Redeemer lives, and we, too, shall be resurrected and glorified to live with Him in His eternal kingdom; through the same Jesus Christ, Your Son, our resurrected Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.
- C Amen.
